Micheline Nader Nominated for New Jersey Leading Women Entrepreneur Award

Morristown, NJ. (June 15, 2016) – Best-selling author, healthcare entrepreneur and Jesra Impact LLC business owner, Micheline Nader, is being recognized for her exemplary leadership in business development as a finalist for The Leading Women Entrepreneurs & Business Owners Award. The 2016 finalists, who were selected among hundreds of applicants, includes women who support numerous non-profits, are employing thousands, are generating billions and represent a variety of industries. They have had a major impact on state and local communities.

Micheline is an award-winning CEO and healthcare entrepreneur with extensive expertise in hospital administration, long-term care and healthcare management. She holds a Bachelor of Science in Nursing and a Masters of Public Health (concentration in hospital administration) and a Doctoral degree in Healthcare Management.

Also the best-selling author of The Dolphin's Dance: Discover your true self through a Powerful 5-step Journey into Conscious Awareness, Micheline bridges the gap between traditional healthcare and complementary medicine. Healthcare professionals, executives, and entrepreneurs praise her book for offering a guide to personal transformation through the pragmatic practice of conscious awareness. Based on her personal experience going from many losses – her father due to illness, her country due to war and her financial stability due to bankruptcy – to a successful entrepreneur, Micheline credits her success to the process of conscious awareness and wrote the book as a way to help others achieve a state of long-lasting emotional wellness beyond any trauma.

"We are very excited to honor women business owners because women are the forerunners to the economic recovery of our state," says Linda Wellbrock, Founder of Leading Women Entrepreneurs. "Over the last twenty years, women have surpassed men at twice the rate for starting their own companies."

Applicants were judged in four areas: Market Potential, Innovation, Advocacy for Women and Community Involvement. Out of the finalists, the Top 25 Leading Women Entrepreneurs will be recognized on November 14, 2016 at a cocktail reception in New Jersey.
